

Detroit Red Wings

POOR NORM Ullman spent 20 years in the NHL, 13 of them with Detroit, and never got a chance to lift the Stanley Cup. Ullman was a true NHL great, scoring 1,229 points in 1,410 games for the Red Wings and Toronto.

Ullman's 1964-65 jersey is flanked by two fellow Hall of Fame Detroit centers who did win Cups. No. 19 Steve Yzerman, left, won three in a six-season span, while Marty Barry, right, won Cups for Detroit in 1936 and '37. Yzerman wore this actual jersey in 1988-89.
